artist of the week

KIM DIVINCENZO

How old are you? A girl never reveals her age! But I will say that I am older than I look. I seems I fool people a lot with my age. After a show people will come up to me and say "we have a bet going, how old are you?"

Married? Nope. Single? umm yes!

Where were you born and raised? I am an East Coast girl! Born and raised in Holden Massachusetts.

Dog/cat owner? Well my family in MA has two dogs. They are the cutest little white west highland terriers named Tyler and Tiffany. I used to have 2 cats when I was younger (hence the names Snuggles and Cleo) but sadly they are in kitty heaven.

Occupation? Writer/Graphic Designer for a series of Home Decor/Remodeling magazines directly mailed out to homeowners with all the $$$$. Maybe some day I will get one in the mail???

Astrological sign? Scorpio

Sports fan? Sure. Well I love the Red Sox but I am not obsessed with any other specific teams. I have been snow boarding for years and used to compete so I love watching Boarder Cross and the X games. But I enjoy pretty much any sport live.

What type of music do you play? Acoustic pop rock with some folky soul thrown into the mix.

What instruments do you play? My lovely Martin 000C16 is what I play the most. I also have a Samick Les Paul (Greg Bennett design) and a 1963 Martin classical guitar.

Do you play with a band? Not currently but once I release my new album I hope to unveil a new band as well.

How long have you been playing? Just under 5 years since the day I picked up the guitar. But I have been singing for as long as I can remember choir/musical theater and all of that.

What is your ultimate musical goal? To write songs that people will never forget. And to travel all around, making a living doing so.

How are you trying to achieve this? Kicking my ass every day

Why should people come and see you perform? As cliché as it may sound, when I am performing I feel most at home as if there is no other place I should be and I think that is why people enjoy the shows. They want you to take them away with your stories and you can't fake that Where can they come see you perform? I play at Lestats about once a month. I also open up for Mark Serritells comedy show every Tuesday there as well. You can find me at other venues like Claire de Lune, Twiggs, E Street Cafe, Hot Java...and then of course at some of the fabulous Cathryn Beeks showcases.

Do you have CDs available? sure do! Here and In Between is a 9 track disk that is available locally at Second Spin, Mojo Sounds, and Music Trader in Pacific Beach. You can also go to my web site which will link you up with my sites on CD Baby, iTunes and a bunch of others.

What is your web site address? www.listentokim.com I still have www.kimdivincenzo.com, they both go to the same place but I got the new one to make it easier. People kept harassing me about trying to spell my long Italian name.

What would you like potential fans to know about you? Hmm that's a hard one...Well I am a huge Radiohead fan and can be found performing a range of Radiohead covers at my shows.

What's your favorite live music venue? Well there are definitely so many awesome one. I would say Canes for full band bigger acts and Lestat's for smaller acoustic acts.

What's your favorite local band? Pinback. A friend in college gave me Blue Screen Life and I was hooked. When I moved out here I was pumped to find out they were from San Diego. You couldn't hear a Pinback song on the radio in the East Coast, but I bet now with the new Album you can. I remember I was driving around with my roommate looking for apartments right when I moved here and I heard Penelope on the radio and flipped out.

What's your favorite part about San Diego? That I can walk out my door, go 4 blocks and I am on the beach, the perfect weather, lots of yummy mexican food and margaritas, And of course the amazing music seen. There is so much damn talent here it is ridiculous ...such wonderful music and incredible people.

Anything else you'd like to add? I can't believe that it will be a year in September since I moved here! Thanks so much for welcoming me in. This truly feels like home to me.

Hear Kim at O'Connell's this Wednesday at 11:30!
